10 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD STUDY ABROAD

THINGS I'VE LEARNED ABOUT MYSELF AND OTHERS WHILE ABROAD
1. Appreciative: In 3rd world countries, individuals have so little but are so happy. We also take many things for granted.

2. Understanding: Countries such as China has a population of 1.3 billion people. When in China, you can see so many similarities and differences. The fact that people are so different, yet they all have the same behaviors.

3. Foods: The food is the bomb! When you first arrive in a country, you can never forget the food. For example, while I was abroad in Greece, the food was amazing. I could have stayed there forever.

4. Language: Many people study languages, but it is difficult to learn a new language. The key is to practice and listen.

5. Scenery: Scenery is the world different. You can see new cities, new buildings, and new landscapes. It is exciting to see how different countries are.

6. People: Meeting new people from around the world is amazing. Learning how different cultures are so similar and how different cultures are so different is amazing.

7. Communication: Learning how to communicate with different cultures is exciting and thrilling.

8. Cultural Experience: Not many people realize that food is a cultural experience. Each country has its own unique cuisine. It is amazing to try new foods.
Finding yourself! While about, maybe you want to find out who you are as a person. Your goals, ambitions, what you want to do in life, and much more.

Because it's amazing!

Just freaking, flip a bomb.

AMAZING!!

We want you!

You won't be appointed.
