
This section contains a listing of resources in The Reader for instruction and/or research about each of the themes core to GSTR 210. Also included under each of the headings are additional video resources available at either Hutchins Library or via YouTube. The guide is arranged both alphabetically and thematically. It is not exhaustive. There are many more resources on each of these topics available at the Hutchins Library, Faber Library, Hathaway Resource Library, and the Madison County Public Library.

Appalachia

An Educational Program for Appalachian America (1896)
William G. Frost ................................................................. 166

Chad Berry ................................................................. 182

Education and Exploitation (1971)
Mike Clark ................................................................. 192

Epilogue to Education and Exploitation (2016)
Mike Clark ................................................................. 202

Appalachian Values (1972)
Loyal Jones ................................................................. 204

Appalachian Values Reconsidered (2016)
Loyal Jones ................................................................. 214

Appalachian Pride (In the Name of Love) (2010)
Silas House ................................................................. 222

Up From the Holler: Living in Two Worlds, at Home in Neither (2005)
Tamar Levin ................................................................. 238

Reflections on “Up from the Holler” (2017)
Della M. Justice ................................................................. 246

Additional Videos in Hutchins:

Berea’s Story

Berea’s Story from the Berea College 2016-2017 Catalog ................................................................. 2

Letter from John G. Fee to Cassius Clay (1844) ................................................................. 7

Paul David Nelson ................................................................. 13
The Day Law (1904)
General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky ......................................................... 34

Berea College and Interracial Education: The First 150 Years (1855-2006) (2016)
Andrew Baskin ................................................................................................................................. 36

“Ain’t Gonna Let Nobody Turn Me Around”: Berea College’s Participation in the Selma to Montgomery March (2017)
Dwayne Mack ................................................................................................................................. 61

The Great Commitments (1969) ........................................................................................................... 89

Rewriting the Great Commitments (1993)
Recommendations from the General Faculty and Report from the Committee to Review the Commitments to the Board of Trustees ................................................................. 90

The Great Commitments of Berea College (1993) ........................................................................... 117

Summary of Great Commitment Re-articulation Work (2016)
Monica Kennison, Maurice Reid, Leslie Orquist-Ahrens, Katherine Christensen, Clint Patterson, Jill Gurtatowski, Kristin Dalessio, Tim Jordan, Clara Chapman, Alicestyne Turley, Chad Berry, Lyle Roelofs, and Virgil Burnside ................................................................. 119

The Great Commitments of Berea College (2017) ........................................................................... 124

President E. Henry Fairchild and Berea College’s Commitment to Women’s Education (1985)
Regina Abrams and David Nelson ................................................................................................... 126

Dress Regulations for Women Students of Berea (1937)
Orlela Daniels ................................................................................................................................... 138

Berea College Subcommittee on Christian Identity ....................................................................... 141

Report to the Strategic Planning Committee from the Subcommittee on Christian Identity (2002)
Janice Blythe, Edwin Broadhead, Regina Fugate, Susan Henthorn, Mike Rivage-Seul, Phil Schmidt, and Larry Shinn ........................................................................................................... 161

An Educational Program for Appalachian America (1896)
William G. Frost ............................................................................................................................... 166

Additional Videos in Hutchins/available via YouTube:

Learning to Live (1930s). Available via YouTube.

Class

Up From the Holler: Living in Two Worlds, at Home in Neither (2005)
Tamar Levin ....................................................................................................................................... 238

Reflections on “Up From the Holler” (2017)
Della M. Justice .................................................................................................................................. 246
Additional Videos in Hutchins:

Gender

President E. Henry Fairchild and Berea College’s Commitment to Women’s Education (1985)
Regina Abrams and David Nelson .......................................................... 126

Dress Regulations for Women Students of Berea (1937)
Orlela Daniels .......................................................................................... 138

Additional Videos in Hutchins:

Race

Experiment in Interracial Education at Berea College, 1858-1908 (1974)
Paul David Nelson .................................................................................. 13

The Day Law (1904)
General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky .......................... 34

Berea College and Interracial Education: The First 150 Years (1855-2006) (2016)
Andrew Baskin ....................................................................................... 36

“Ain’t Gonna Let Nobody Turn Me Around”: Berea College’s Participation in the Selma to Montgomery March (2017)
Dwayne Mack ....................................................................................... 61

Additional Videos in Hutchins:

